This column is prepared by Stephen every week, so that instead of us feeling overwhelmed by the mess of the planet we can take positive action - that a better world is possible. Don't just read - ACT!

Homes Not Profits. Asylum accommodation is currently provided on for-profit basis, but Care4Calais is building a campaign to demand use of break clauses in the contract next year to house people in homes not hotels; sign up to support the campaign: Homes Not Profits | Care4Calais.

Make Polluters Pay. Climate change continues but polluting companies are still making huge profits; ahead of the UK government's spending review urge your MP to attend Greenpeace's meeting on 4th June to hear why polluters should pay; details: <https://act.greenpeace.org/page/171561/action/1>.

Not Too Late. Scotland's Climate Change Committee has published advice to the Scottish Government on reaching net zero emissions by 2045 and shows the target is still deliverable, setting out a detailed route plan of how to reach it; read the summary at: <https://www.stopclimatechaos.scot/>.

Parish News

Tuesday Club had their annual bus run - to Largs - last week taking advantage of the phenomenal weather! You can see the picture dump on our social media pages. Thanks to the team for organising.

Gleam Team - we are blessed with a great team of church cleaners but this is changing as people get older, unwell and have more family commitments. Any men or women spare an hour on Monday or Friday to keep the church immaculate (Tea, biccies & chat provided)

Eucharistic Ministers asked to make sure you're here; there have been a number of no-shows recently. Also, the tray with the vessels is returned to the sacristy after each Mass and purified in preparation for the next mass. Can ministers take it in turn to do this?
